Bride in Dallas, Texas, With Many Virginia People Present.

Mrs. Edgar B. Walters, of Garden City, N. Y., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. James Branch Cabell, at "Dumbarton Grange," near Richmond, returned on Sunday evening to her home, accompanied by Miss Priscilla Shepherd, Miss Shepherd expects to spend the month of November as the guest of relatives in the North.

Miss Coulter's Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Lucy Lee Coulter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Coulter, formerly of Richmond, to Edmund B. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wayt King, which was celebrated yesterday evening in the home of the bride, 3828 Lemmon Avenue, Dallas, Texas, is of much interest to friends and relatives here. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock, with Rev. William M. Anderson officiating. The house was arranged everywhere with palms, Southern smilax and quantities of white chrysanthemums. The flowers and lighted candles decorated the improvised altar in the drawing-room and the mantels were banked in lilacs and chrysanthemums. Miss Theresa McCord played the wedding march, and "Lohengrin" as the bridal party descended the stairs, and "Trauerzeit" very softly during the ceremony.

The bride's wedding dress was of white crepe faille and charming lace and her veil of illusion was fastened with sprays of lilacs of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilacs of the valley and her only ornament was a crescent of pearls and diamonds, the groom's gift. Mr. Coulter gave his daughter away. Miss Lucille Shaw, who was maid of honor, wore a French gown of white crepe and a silver green banquet girdle and an accordion plaited train of the same. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Miss Helen Coulter was best woman. Miss Helen Adams, of Memphis, Tenn., and Christine Shaw, the bridesmaids, were gowned alike in white accordion plaited chiffon dresses, with lace tunics and deep silver green girdles. They carried shower bouquets of pink carnations and ferns. Little Anna Rembert Willis was flower girl and wore a dainty dress of white net and lace with a pink sash. She carried a French basket of rosebuds.

A reception followed the ceremony, and Mrs. James Lyons, Mrs. F. L. Shaw, Mrs. J. Hart Willis, Miss Mary Simpson, Mrs. Paul York Jones, Miss Hazel Cooke and Miss Katie Lee Coulter assisted in doing the honors of the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. King left later for a wedding tour of two weeks through Southern Texas. The bride traveled in a smart suit of blue haberdine, with a hat of the same shade.

Some of the guests from a distance attending the marriage were Mrs. William R. Miller, of Richmond, who wore an imported gown of white Canton crepe; Mrs. W. Wayt King, of Staunton, who was gowned in corn-colored satin with draperies of hand-painted chiffon; Miss Helen Adams, of Memphis, Tenn.; W. W. Kings, of Staunton, and others. The bride's mother wore a gown of lavender crepe de chine and silk shadow lace, trimmed in brilliants.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Kings, of near Trevilians, entertained about sixty of their friends at Halloween party Saturday evening. The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves, ferns and black cats, with jack-o'-lanterns and candles on the mantels. A witch in costume greeted the guests at the door and a ghost showed the very early visitors. All of the guests were masked and in fancy costume. A buffet supper was served at a late hour.

Clemmitt-Hooper.

The marriage of Miss Sophia Hooper, daughter of John R. Hooper, to Edward Parke Clemmitt, son of Edward B. Clemmitt and the late Mrs. Kate Lee Clemmitt, was celebrated at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. James A. Davis, 209 North Sycamore Street. The ceremony took place on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. George W. Kemper officiating. The entire lower floor was decorated in palms and potted plants, and a scheme of green and white was carried out everywhere. Mrs. W. A. Grant, sister of the bride, played the wedding march and "Heart and Flower" very softly during the service. Little Misses Berkeley May Davis and Marguerite Clemmitt held the ribbons and wore sheer white frocks with pink ribbons. Little Virginia S. Davis carried the ring in the heart of a rose on a silver tray.

The bride wore a traveling costume of blue broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilacs of the valley. Miss S. Virginia Hooper, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wore pink crepe de chine and a shadow lace, and carried a big bouquet of white chrysanthemums. John Davenport was the bridegroom's best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Clemmitt left at once for a Northern wedding tour, and will be at home after November 10 at 2614-A West Main Street.

Fall Festival.
An interesting charity event of this week will be the fall festival to be held for the benefit of St. John's Evangelical Sunday school in the Sunday school room on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week at 8:15 o'clock. Attractive booths will be arranged around the sides of the room and decorated in all sorts of novel and unique ways, and a splendid program has been arranged for both evenings.

Of Interest Here.
The marriage last Wednesday in Bridgeport, Conn., of Miss Gertrude Lennon, daughter of Mr. Lennon, and the late Thomas Lennon, of Benning Avenue, Bridgeport, to Henry Eugene MacCann, son of the late Major and Mrs. Charles MacCann, of Baltimore, and the late Mrs. Andrew MacCann, of Richmond, will be of interest to society in this city.

The wedding, which was very quiet, owing to the recent death of Mr. MacCann's mother, who was formerly Miss Mary Pizzini, of Richmond, took place with a nuptial mass in the beautiful private chapel of St. Augustine's Church, Bridgeport, the Rev. James E. Nihil officiating. Only the immediate families were present.

The bride is a beautiful young woman, and has been a reigning belle in Bridgeport for several years past. Mr. MacCann is a brother of Charles Andrew MacCann, of Baltimore, and Mrs. J. Hull Davidson and Mrs. Herman Devener, of Pittsburgh. Mr. MacCann spent part of his early boyhood in Richmond, and after graduating from Rock Hill College, Ellott City, Md., studied law in the office of the late General Bradley T. Johnson in Baltimore. He is now associated with the enterprises of Morton F. Plant, of New York, and lives in New London, Conn. After a wedding journey to Chicago, Omaha and the West Mr. and Mrs. MacCann will be at home after December 1 at the Mohican Hotel, New London, Conn.

In Washington.
Mrs. C. Lee Moore, of 2038 West Grace Street, left yesterday for a visit to Washington. Mrs. Moore will also visit the family of Captain S. R. Donohoe, Lawrence; Messrs. Edwards, Keyser, Holman, Barret and Weider.

Engagement Announced.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club.
The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met Monday evening with Mrs. James D. Crump at the Chesterfield. Two tables were engaged, and the highest score was made by Mrs. Bland Spotswood Smith and Mrs. James C. Lamb. The club will meet next Monday evening with Admiral and Mrs. Harrie Wester at their apartment in the Chesterfield.

Attractive Function.
Mrs. Anna Bailey entertained on Saturday evening at a delightful Halloween party in honor of her step-son, Cecil H. Bailey, at her home, 425 South Laurel Street.

The evening was spent in playing games appropriate to the occasion, and at a late hour refreshments were served, with Miss Ruth Eanes presiding over the punch bowl. The rooms and table were beautifully arranged with autumn leaves, pumpkins and other Halloween decorations.

The presenters, Misses Corinne Roberts and Katie Davis, of Norwood; Misses Bessie Garren, Ruth and Pauline Eanes, Nellie Brown, Etta and Thelma Haller, Gertrude Foster, Katie Wells, Herbert R. Carlton, Harwood Pettit, Raymond Mallory, J. Bernard Barker, Edward Lacy, Stanley Magee, John Lloyd, Cecil H. Bailey, Carlyle Gill, Elizabeth White and Franklin Kahn.

Leave for the West.
Mrs. Fred T. Nason and daughter, Miss Mildred Nason, who have been on a visit to relatives and friends in Orange, Hanover, York Counties and Richmond for several months past, have returned to their home in San Diego, Cal. Mrs. Nason and her daughter also spent some time in Washington, before leaving for the West.

Guests Entertained.
Quite a number of guests were entertained by Miss LaFon and Emeline Coulter at their home, 1114 Floyd Avenue, Saturday evening. Some of those present were Messrs. Charley Putney, Dixie and John Kriete, Waverly Greene, D. N. Sutton, John Hawkins, Stokes and Walter Overton; Misses Connie Schaaf, Virginia and Irene Roan, Mamie Blenner, Bessie Hardaway, Christine Fleet, Louise Gathright and Elizabeth White.

Marriage Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Turman, of Arcola, Loudoun County, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ella May Turman, to Charles Moffett, the ceremony having taken place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Moffett will be entertained in this city by the bride's relatives, Dr. A. E. Turman and Dr. John W. Turman.

Celebrate Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bowry, of 319 North Twenty-second Street, celebrated the fifty-fifth anniversary of their marriage on October 27. Mr. and Mrs. Bowry were married in 1859 at the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, in Charles City County. Rev. John Lamb, pastor of the church, officiating. Mr. Bowry is in his seventy-eighth year. They have five children and eighteen grandchildren.

Installation of Officers.
On Sunday evening a banquet was given by the Lee Pleasure Club at the Neighborhood Home, Nineteenth and Broad Streets, in honor of the newly-elected officers of the club. Following the banquet, Polk Miller's quartet sang and entertained the party, and Professor H. Glass, who has recently returned from the University of Music, rendered a violin selection. Miss Mancino also rendered a number of charming solos. The banquet was attended by the members of the club and their officers, as well as a number of invited guests. The officers for the ensuing year include J. Sunderlin, president; M. Goldin, vice-president; I. Goldin, secretary; E. Quinn, treasurer, and J. Silverman, sergeant-at-arms.

Facial Gymnastic

BY LILLIAN RUSSELL.

Do not squint. Do not permit pride to keep you from the oculist. Your facial gymnastics may amuse others. They will not add to your appearance. The buffoon squints to make people laugh at his ridiculous face. The clown adopts the same tactics. Do you want to fill the function of a clown?

How many people, on account of pride, refuse to wear eyeglasses—and through squinting disfigure their facial beauty. Of two evils, choose the lesser. The eyeglasses will not mar the beauty of the face as much as squinting.

The best way to avoid the oculist is to visit the oculist. He may find means of giving you vigorous and adequate sight without the use of glasses. If he decides that you should have glasses, get them at once. Do not let your pride make you a buffoon. Do not allow it to make you foolish.

Pride is noted for that sort of thing. Delicately, squinting does not always necessitate the wearing of glasses. There are sometimes deep-seated causes for impaired sight. This is an additional reason for a visit to a reputable oculist when the sight begins to fail and the eyes start to hurt.

Failing sight may be a symptom of organic or other serious disorder. A lifetime of squinting will not restore the sight. Every squint, on the contrary, means an additional strain, and each strain damages the eye.

Squinting is productive of many undesirable and usually unexpected results. It wrinkles and marks the face with seams that are everlasting. It throws the nose, mouth, and every other part of the face out of place, thus distorting the whole countenance.

Lillian Russell's Answers.
Lucile: Cocoa butter may help to develop the calf of the legs, but this would be rather slow and tedious. Exercise is much better for this purpose. Any exercise where the legs must be used is good for developing them. Walking is splendid, and there are many games that will accomplish this, basketball for one.

M. S.: The formula you give, of two ounces cocoa butter, two ounces lanolin and eight ounces olive oil, should be good for developing the bust, for the ingredients are all nourishing. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope, I shall send you my formula for developing the bust and tonic for eyebrows and eyelashes.

Helen M.: The cold cream will keep for some time, but it is not advisable to make more than the amount given in the recipe at one time, for it is much better to use it when it is fresh. The cold cream is excellent, and will work wonders with the complexion. It is a good cleanser. I shall be glad to send you the formula for the cold cream if you will send me a stamped addressed envelope.
